

Tomb of Hazrat Shah Kamal

Hazrat Shah Kamal was the elder brother of Sufi Saint Shah Jamal. His tomb is located in the populated area of Lahore called Shah Kamal in the area of Ichhra. The whole field of mosque and the tomb itself was built in the corner of a place that incorporates a large graveyard. A congregator of devotees is held every Thursday night. The devotees are by people from all walks of life; local and international visitors as well as common folk. Ladies and children visit in large numbers as well. The environment is very friendly, yet it is safe to visit for the devotees to get spiritual ecstasy. The tomb has an adequate space for walking and sitting. The monument has an ambiance of spaciousness and an imposing appearance with its domed.

Bibliography:

Lahore: Its History, Architectural Remains and Antiquities By: Syed Muhammad Latif