READ—

THE annual Administration Report on Small Towns for the year 1939-40.

1.—NUMBER AND CONSTITUTION.

The number of small towns during the year decreased from 104 to 99 owing to the conversion of the small towns of Zafarwal, Begowal and Daska in the Sialkot district into notified area committees and the abolition of the small towns of Ichhra and Shahrā in Lahore and Sheikhpura districts, respectively. The Lahore division has again the highest number of small towns, while Simla, Jhelum and Montgomery districts have none. The town committees of Narot Jaimal Singh, Daud and Lalamusa continued under suspension. The total population of small town areas was 435,517 and the number of members 648 including 515 elected and 133 nominated of whom 42 were officials. All town committees have elected presidents, 29 of them are, however, officials.

2. General elections were held in 33 small towns, and 152 out of 209 seats were contested. At Ladwa and Kharar in the Ambala division all the seats were keenly contested and 92·8 per cent of voters went to the polls at the former place. In the Lahore and Rawalpindi divisions also most of the seats were contested and the elections created a good deal of local interest.

3. The number of meetings held during the year was on the whole satisfactory, though the number of those adjourned for want of quorum was perhaps high, being about 10 per cent. The town committee of Chubarkana Mandi, in the Lahore Division, has been reported to be notorious for adjournments.

2.—GENERAL AND SPECIAL ORDERS.

The number of special orders issued under section 35 of the Small Towns Act, increased from 801 in the previous year to 897. Town committees in the Multan division still continue to maintain the distinction of issuing the highest number (548) of general orders. In the Lahore division, town committees have been reported to be generally averse to making general orders. On the whole the use of powers under section 35 of the Act cannot be said to be adequate and orders framed by committees for the control of building operations and articles of food and drink have not been strictly enforced.

3.—INCOME AND EXPENDITURE.

It is somewhat gratifying to note that the total income of small towns during the year increased from Rs. 7,75,539 to Rs. 9,38,397 the increase being mainly under "octroi." Only a few small towns, however, took steps to explore fresh avenues of income perhaps for fear of incurring the displeasure of the electorate. No new tax was levied by any of the town committees in the Lahore division and none of the town committees in the Ambala division raised the unit of personal town rate or increased the number of assesseses. The main financial achievement of town committees on the whole has, therefore, been to keep the expenditure within their income.

2. Government observe that sufficient attention is not being paid to the recovery of arrears. In the Ambala division slow progress in this direction may be accounted for by famine conditions which materially affected the paying capacity of assesseses. Elsewhere personal differences among members and even their unwillingness to help have hampered recovery. Arrears in the Hoshiarpur district for instance have gone up from Rs. 29,326 in the previous year to Rs. 32,859. Similarly in the Lahore division committees have heavy arrears and members continue to show favour to their friends and electors and shirk their responsibilities.

3. Expenditure during the year increased from Rs. 8,00,366 to Rs. 8,78,538. Of course where funds are available committees endeavour to provide money for various objects specified in the Act, but most of them have tiny budgets and are unable to make any large scale improvements.

4.—SUPERVISION AND CONTROL.

As usual most of the small towns were inspected by the Deputy Commissioners or their assistants or by the Inspectors of Local Bodies. Little interference by the Deputy Commissioners was found necessary except that the Deputy Commissioners, Rohtak and Gurgaon, had to take action under section 11 of the Act to retrench certain unnecessary posts in the town committees of Mehm and Farrukhnagar.

5.—GENERAL.

There has been no real progress in small town administration during the year under report and the remarks recorded in the last year's review hold good with equal force for the current year. It is perhaps doubtful whether there will be any improvement until the electorate becomes sufficiently educated to feel the need of efficient administration and to be prepared to pay for it. The elected representatives are also partly to blame for slackness in the realization of taxes and other dues which is mostly on account of the fact that they do not wish to displease their electors by being strict in effecting recoveries. It is a matter for regret that such factors should have combined to clog the wheels of small town administration and prevent rapid improvements.

ORDER.—Ordered that copies of this review be forwarded to all Commissioners of Divisions and Deputy Commissioners in the Punjab, and the Secretary to Government, Punjab, Public Works Department, Buildings and Roads Branch, and be submitted to the Government of India in the Department of Education, Health and Lands.

Ordered also that the review be published in the Punjab Gazette and that copies be supplied to Deputy Commissioners for the information of town committees.

By order of the Punjab Government,

SAIDULLAH KHAN,

Secretary to Government, Punjab,

Medical and Local Government Departments.
