FROM

A. B. KETTLEWELL, ESQUIRE,
*Judicial and General Secretary to Government,
Punjab and its Dependencies,*

To

THE JUNIOR SECRETARY TO THE FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER, PUNJAB.

Dated Simla, 20th August 1904.

Financial.

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 667, dated 6th August 1904, submitting the annual returns relating to the collection of Income Tax for the year 1903-04.

2. The number of objections lodged during the year is proportionally larger than in the past; and if the anticipated results of the new law are considered the increase becomes still more marked. The Lieutenant-Governor agrees that this matter is deserving of the closest attention, and trusts that the Financial Commissioner will take steps to ensure that the intentions of the new law are not frustrated by an arbitrary exaggeration of the assessee's income.

3. Under the orders contained in Government of India Resolution No. 2316 S. R., dated 8th May 1901, a copy of which was sent you under cover of Mr. Diack's letter No. 106 S., dated 4th June 1901, the annual and triennial reports are due with the Supreme Government on the 1st August and 1st October respectively. I am therefore to request that they may in future be submitted to this office not later than 15th July and 15th August respectively.

I have, &c.,

A. B. KETTLEWELL,

Judicial and Genl. Secy. to Govt., Punjab.

No. 667.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE:

Dated LAHORE, 6th August 1904.

FROM

F. W. KENNAWAY, ESQUIRE,

Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,

To

A. H. DIACK, ESQUIRE,

Chief Secretary to Government, Punjab.

Sir,

I am directed to submit the annual returns relating to the collection of Income Tax in the Punjab for the year ending the 31st March 1904. In accordance with the instructions under this head contained in the "Amalgamated Statement of Reports and Returns, 1904," the Report is due to Government on the 10th of August and, as the Triennial Report is not due until next year, brief notes only are now required. The returns are in the forms prescribed in Government of India Resolution, No. 5430 S. R., dated 4th September 1903.

2. The year is chiefly noticeable as the first in which, in accordance with the provisions of Act XI of 1903, the minimum taxable limit has been Rs. 1,000 instead of, as formerly, Rs. 500. The decrease in the total collections of the tax (Column 3 of Table 1) is Rs. 2,89,158, as compared with last year. Last year the two lowest classes of assessee, now exempt, paid Rs. 3,49,917: the next higher class paid Rs. 1,20,613, while this year it contributes Rs. 1,60,490. This may well be due to more careful administration resulting from the decrease in the work of Tahsildars, but the Financial Commissioner hopes that assessing and revising officers will scrutinise most carefully all cases in which an assessee, who formerly paid on an income of less than Rs. 1,000, is still assessed to the tax. In this connection the figures for objections deserve examination: in 1901-02 these were 17,299 out of 47,982 assessee: in 1902-03 they were 16,359 out of 47,534 assessee: while during the year under report we find only 20,771 persons assessed, out of whom 9,518 lodged objections.

The main reason for the present increase may be that those who are assessed at the higher rates usually file objections more freely than the lower classes of assessee. Time alone will show if this is true. Two tables (Nos. I and II), showing the effect of the change of the law in each district are attached. The large increase in Delhi is set down by the Commissioner to taxation of abnormal profits made by traders during the Coronation Darbár and he anticipates a large decrease next year. Amritsar was one of the towns mentioned in paragraph 5 of last year's report as undergoing a special revision of assessment, and to this cause is ascribed the increase shown against the district of that name.

3. The question of reduction of income-tax establishment will be taken up as soon as replies have been received from the officers addressed in this Office Circular letter No. 5,323, dated 4th September 1903, a copy of which was forwarded to Government with my endorsement No. 716, dated 5th October 1903.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

F. W. KENNAWAY,

Junior Secretary to the Financial Commissioner, Punjab.
