I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

Note on the Stamp Statements for the year 1924-25.

INCOME shows an increase under all heads. The following increases call for remarks :—

	Rs.
(i) Court-fees	... 12,87,111
(ii) Non-Judicial impressed stamps	... 3,58,588
(iii) Impressed stamps defined by section 2 (13) (a) of the Indian Stamp Act	... 31,557
(iv) Foreign Bills	... 20,293
(v) Share Transfers	... 2,292

Anxiety on the part of money-lenders lest their claims should become time-barred owing to the repeal of the Punjab Loans Limitation Act, accounts largely for increases under heads (i) and (ii).

The increase under (iii) is due entirely to the increasing use of the Punjab Stamp Office by business firms and banks in Lahore.

Increases under (iv) and (v) appear to be due to improvement in trade conditions.

2. There has been a reduction of Rs. 31,147 under head "refunds" and Rs. 4,266 under "other charges". On the other hand the increase of Rs. 15,136 in the discount allowed to vendors reduces the total decreases under "charges" on last year's figures to Rs. 20,277.

Increased discount is due to increased sales of stamps as compared with the previous year.

The large refunds of 1923-24 given in connection with the failure and liquidation of the Alliance Bank of Simla were abnormal and the reduction under this head is not unexpected.

The increased cost of stamps and plain paper supplied from Central Stores is due to the fact that over-head charges have been included in the statements this year.

3. In view of the general increase under the head of "discount", and the fact that the number of stamp vendors (1,851) is still in excess of those working in 1922-23, too much importance need not be attached to the remarks of the Deputy Commissioner of Dera Ghazi Khan that 4 vendors resigned, being dissatisfied at the revised rate of discount allowed.

4. It is satisfactory to observe from the increase in the number of cases dealt with that Courts and Collectors have exercised a closer scrutiny of improperly stamped documents produced before them.

5. There were two prosecutions under the Indian Stamp Act in the Karnal District. In one case the fine imposed was remitted by the High Court on the ground that the person concerned was not acting mala fide.

H. J. PEARSON,
Assistant Secretary to the Financial Commissioners, Punjab.
